

Floji for Accountancy

Bring your practice and your clients closer together.
Secure communication for accountancy teams and their clients.

More connected, more reliable communication across your whole accountancy firm. Floji consolidates phone, video, messaging and collaboration tools in a single platform where you can manage all your team and client conversations.

Why choose Floji for accountancy?

Connect your whole organisation

- ✓ Remote, hybrid or office-based. Give your accountants the mobility to work productively from anywhere, on any device.
- ✓ Dedicated collaboration spaces. Easily set up shared working spaces for the different groups of people you work with, including colleagues, clients and external partners.
- ✓ Share files securely. Store and share financial documents securely, and instantly pinpoint key information.
- ✓ Easy to set up; even easier to use. Be up and running in no time. Scale quickly when you need to – adding new accounts during tax season, for instance.
- ✓ Business telephony. Everything a modern accountancy practice needs from its phone system. Keep your existing numbers or let us provide you with new ones.

All your client communication

- ✓ Every channel in one platform. Provide quality financial advice across key communication channels – phone, video, messaging, email, webchat, WhatsApp.
- ✓ Capture every call and meeting. Floji logs and records every interaction so you always have the full record of communication at your fingertips.
- ✓ Stay on top of workloads. Inbuilt client engagement technology detects when clients are still awaiting a response, and delivers reminders to your team.
- ✓ Greater accessibility. Attract more clients by deploying live chat and one-click webcalling on your site. Take advantage of IVR client routing to make it faster and easier for clients to get through to the people who can help them.
